

Wildlands Eco-Forestry, a business with 10 years concertedly involved with issues relating to the Wildland/Urban Interface and providing services in both the private and public sectors including:

- Landholders • Municipalities
- Community developers

Vegetation Management and Fire Suppression

ZoneONE Sprinkler Kit

- A structural protection kit comprised of one Roof Caddy, one Ground Protection Kit and an interconnecting manifold

FlameOut Hose Caddy

- Only USDA Forestry Service approved non-toxic, non-corrosive, 100% biodegradable foam that fights fires
- Garden Hose connection and nozzle

- ✓ With a focus on Wildland/Urban Interface management; project management and administration, planning, crew supervision. Full and complete coverage of the project.

- ✓ Assessment and mitigation of wildfire hazards in Wildland/Urban interface.
- ✓ Mitigation crews for Wildland/Urban interface management, Ecosystem Restoration projects and overall Forestry Industry operations.
- ✓ Experienced crews certified in assessing wildfire threat to your home and property. As the authorized distributor of the FireCaddy fire suppression system we are able to offer solutions for this essential step in protecting your home and property.
- ✓ Comprehensive GPS and Mapping capabilities.

\ We provide a fully equipped ETV, (Ambulance) and OFA – Level III with H2S alive, CPR. The ETV and OFA-Level III attendant are available for lease as required, contact us for more*